

1997-1998

Friends of Merrymeeting Bay's
WINTER SPEAKER SERIES

7:00 p.m. Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center
Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine
(exceptions to above location noted below)

- OCTOBER 15 Edwards Dam: What's Next?
Ron Kreisman, Kennebec Coalition
- NOVEMBER 19 Preserving Land For Future Generations: A Discussion of Conservation Easements
Betsy Ham, Executive Director, FOMB
Rupert Neily, Project Manager, MCHT
(Location: Room 4, Druckenmiller Hall)
- DECEMBER 17 Geology of Merrymeeting Bay
Joe Kelley, Marine Geologist, Maine Geologic
Survey
- JANUARY 21 Prehistoric Archeology of
Merrymeeting Bay
Steven Cox, Archeologist, ME State Museum
- FEBRUARY 18 Tidewater Ice: A History of the Ice Industry on the Kennebec
Eleanor Everson, Dresden Ice Historian
- MARCH 18 Shipbuilding and Shipping in
Merrymeeting Bay
Nathan Lipfert, Maine Maritime Museum
- APRIL 15 Dioxin in our Environment
Nick Bennett, Staff Scientist, NRCM
- MAY 20 Birds of Merrymeeting Bay FOMB
Peter Vickery, Ornithologist
(At a location TBA in Richmond)

Sponsored By Friends of Merrymeeting Bay
Patagonia, Bowdoin College Environmental Studies Program with help from Brunswick-Topsham Land Trust

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL FOMB AT 666-3376

If you receive more than one postcard please pass it on to a friend. We are using several mailing lists and can not always eliminate duplicates.

PLEASE POST ON YOUR REFRIGERATOR