

Friends of Merrymeeting Bay's 98-99 Speaker Series

TOPIC

SPEAKER

Tales of a Maine Guide: Fifty Years of Guiding on the Bay
October 21, 7 pm at the Bridge Academy in Dresden Mills

Linwood Rideout, Maine Guide

.....

Benedict Arnold's March to Quebec
Nov. 18, 7 pm at Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College

George Quintal Jr., of The Arnold Expedition Historical Society

.....

FOMB Annual Auction
.....

Call for Catalog and more info (Dec 10)

.....

Toxic Source Reduction and
The Public's Right to Know
Dec 16, 7 pm at Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College

Steve Taylor,
Maine Peoples Alliance

.....

Wildlife Habitat in our Backyards
Jan 20, 7 pm at Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College

Nancy Coverstone - Extension Service

.....

Kingfishers as Indicators of Toxins in our Water
Feb 17, 7 pm at Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College

Oksana Lane, Biodiversity Research Institute

.....

Flooding on the Kennebec
March 17, 7 pm at Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College

Eleanor Everson, Historian

.....

The Fisheries Connection:
MMB and the Gulf of Maine
April 21, 7 pm at Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College

Peter Shelley, Director of the Conservation Law Foundation

.....

Mud Plants of The Bay
May 19, 7 pm at the Bridge Academy in Dresden Mills

Barbara Vickery, The Nature Conservancy and Andy Cutko, Maine Natural Areas Program

FREE • OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • FREE

Sponsored by Friends of Merrymeeting Bay
Patagonia, Enterprise Farms, Bowdoin College Environmental Studies Program with help from Brunswick-Topsham Land Trust

For more information, call Friends of Merrymeeting Bay at 666-3376

.....

If you receive more than one postcard, please pass it along to a friend. We are using several mailing lists and cannot always eliminate duplications