

Merrymeeting Bay

1999-2000 SPEAKER SERIES

7:00 p.m. Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College, Brunswick
☞ Nov. 17 & May 17 at Bridge Academy, Dresden, Maine

OCTOBER 20 Preserving the Bay: The Thorne Head Experience
Anne W. Hammond, Lower Kennebec Regional Land Trust; Jack Witham, Holt Research Forest

NOVEMBER 17 Family Farming on Merrymeeting Bay
☞ 7:30 pm Jan Goranson & Rob Johanson, Goranson Farm, Dresden;
Dresden Harry & Dave Prout, Prout Farm, Bowdoinham
Bridge Academy Speakers follow FOMB Annual Meeting (7:00 p.m.) – public invited

DECEMBER 15 A Bridge Back to the Year 1000: The Bay at the Turn of the Millennium – Steve Cox, Maine State Museum

JANUARY 19 The Bay as Inspiration for Art
Bryce Muir, artist; Franklin Burroughs, author

FEBRUARY 16 Environmental Trade-offs, Are They Worth It? Edwards Dam
As a Case Study – Christopher St. John, Maine Center for Economic Policy, Moderator; Steve Brooke, Kennebec Coalition and American Rivers; Jonathan Carter, Forest Ecology Network; Kevin Gildart, Bath Iron Works

MARCH 15 A Working Watershed from 1600 to 1950: Industry &
Agriculture on Merrymeeting Bay – Edward Hawes, Consulting Historian

APRIL 19 A Bird's Eye View of the Bay: A Look at Current Conditions & Changes Over Time Using Aerial Photos – Dave Edson, James W. Sewall Co.; Alan Haberstock, Kleinschmidt Associates

MAY 17 Eagles & Ospreys in Midcoast Maine
☞ Dresden Don Hudson, Chewonki Foundation
Bridge Academy

FREE • OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • FREE

Sponsored by Friends of Merrymeeting Bay

BOWDOIN COLLEGE ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES PROGRAM

with help from Brunswick-Topsham Land Trust • Enterprise Farm

Topsham Shop 'n Save • Door prizes provided by Patagonia

666-3376 • 725-3629