

Friends of Merrymeeting Bay

2005-2006 SPEAKER SERIES

7:00 p.m., Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College, Brunswick
December 14 at Bowdoinham Town Office Bldg.; January 11 at Cram Alumni House, Bowdoin College;
March 8th at Maine Maritime Museum, Bath.; May 10 at Bridge Academy, Dresden.

- OCTOBER 18 Sewage Sludge Land-Spreading: Public Health & Environmental Impacts: Laura Orlando, The ReSource Institute for Low Entropy Systems.
- NOVEMBER 9 The Endangered American Eel: Miracle of Nature: Doug Watts, Friends of Kennebec Salmon.
- DECEMBER 14 Historic Merrymeeting Park: 1898-1908: Chris Gutscher.
- JANUARY 11 Arnold's March to Quebec: Steve Clark, Arnold Historical Society. Potluck: 5:30, FOMB Annual Meeting: 6:15
- FEBRUARY 8 Legislating for the Common Good: The Courage of Your Convictions: Kathleen McGee, Doug Clopp & Rob Brown. Maine Citizen Leadership Fund
- MARCH 8 Seal Strandings, Recovery & Rehabilitation: Asheley Simpson, Marine Animal Lifeline.
- APRIL 12 Merrymeeting Bay Research Update: Ducks, Eels, Currents, Mussels, Turtles & More: FOMB & Bowdoin College Environmental Studies.
- MAY 10 Conservation Accomplishments and Goals in the Merrymeeting Bay & Lower Kennebec Area: Will Brune, The Nature Conservancy

FREE • OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • FREE

Sponsored by: Friends of Merrymeeting Bay
Co-Sponsored by: Bowdoin College Environmental Studies Program

With support from: Patagonia, Inc.-Freeport, & assistance from:
The Nature Conservancy-Maine Chapter

Contact 207-721-0941 or fomb@zwi.net for more information.

www.link75.org/mmb/